NOT SO GREAT EXPECTATIONS

a 3-week class with Christine Deken

Have you ever felt disappointment with God and other people? Has life not turned out the way you thought? Have you lost a relationship with a friend or known someone who left fellowship because of differing expectations? In this class, we will define expectations and discuss potential damage caused by unwarranted expectations. We will explore commonly held but subtle expectations of God, people and general life issues using biblical characters and their expectations as well as our own thoughts and emotions. Goals for the class are to help us more readily recognize our wrong expectations, discuss ways to rehabilitate them in accordance with God's truth and reality and explore how we might more quickly turn to place our hope in God.

THE BOOK OF JOB

a 5-week class with Pat Reeder

"But where can wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?" (Job 28:12) Wisdom literature is often very hard to understand and The Book of Job is no exception to the rule. The main character, Job, is subjected to immense trials, losing his family, wealth and eventually health. His wife abandons him and his friends come and blame all of his problems on him. Meanwhile, God and Satan are engaged in a "wager" concerning Job's righteousness. Such a complex scenario is a perfect storm, making for a piquant case study in the theology of suffering and much more. The course will be an overview of the book in general, which some special discussion of some of the more noteworthy theological lessons.
